Catering options

We require full prepayment of all food and beverages one week before your wedding reception.

Menu tastings

We are happy to provide a complimentary taste test for the bride and groom. We suggest scheduling this at least two months prior to your wedding. Friends and family are welcome to join you for the tasting at full menu price.

Entertainment & Photographer meals

If you require a main meal to be provided for your entertainers and/or photographers, please advise your wedding co-ordinator to ensure catering and accounts can be adjusted accordingly. Please confirm whether this is required when confirming your menu selections.

Photography

You are welcome to have photos taken around the hotel and pool deck. We recommend serving canapés to your guests during this time.

Decorations & Theming

We provide all linen, crockery, cutlery and glasses for your special event.

Please arrange delivery of all menus, place names, seating plans, flowers, bonbonnières and other table decorations the day prior to your reception.

Note, chair covers are not suitable for our restaurant chairs. No rice or confetti is allowed on the premises.

Wedding Ceremony options

Mantra South Bank is within walking distance to South Bank Parklands Formal Gardens and Nepalese Pagoda; the perfect location for your unique ceremony. For further information please contact the South Bank Visitor Centre.

Just a short ferry ride from the hotel, Brisbane Botanic Gardens are also a beautiful location for your wedding ceremony. For further information please contact the Brisbane City Council.

Take the stress out of organising your wedding day by selecting one of our all inclusive packages. Includes food, beverage, flowers and decorations, accommodation for the bride and groom, even a breakfast for 10 people the following morning as the celebration continues.
